

Staff Engineer, Full Time

Job Tasks:

- Assist principal engineer with water and wastewater project design
- Perform calculations
- Apply for environmental permits
- Draft preliminary plans
- Write design reports
- Deliver and pick up permits
- Look up maps and property information on the Internet
- Plot figures, charts, and drawings
- Contact equipment suppliers for information
- Perform field studies
- Visit job sites
- Review construction
- Filing
- Project management
- Coordinate with clients.
- Travel within the state, especially the greater Phoenix area
- Additional tasks as needed

Requirements:

- Bachelor's Degree in Engineering or Applied Science
- Entry level to five years of experience
- Knowledge of Word, Excel, and Outlook required
- Internet proficiency
- Knowledge of ACAD and drafting a plus
- Engineer-in-Training certification a plus, but not required

Ideal candidate is self-motivated, has strong time management and communication skills, knowledge of soils and geology, strong math skills, a reliable car or truck, a home Internet connection, a cell phone, ability to focus, and give complete attention to detail.

Benefits:

- Health insurance
- Paid holidays and vacation
- Work related travel, Internet connection, and cell phone reimbursement
- Future 401K retirement plan
- Educational expenses may be reimbursed for passing relevant courses
- Flexible hours
- Work from home
- Training provided
- Opportunity for advancement as company grows
- Competitive salary based on education and experience